

Regulation

Granfondo Vaduz

Updated November 2023

Article 1 // Categories

There is one overall category for men and women for the long and the short loop. The long course includes about 92 kilometres and 1700 metres of altitude. The shorter route covers a lap of around 60 kilometres and 1100 metres in altitude.

Article 2 // Participant Fee

The participant fees vary from destination, race format and time of the registration. Head to the sub-site of each destination on the website www.chasingcancellara.com for further details.

Article 3 // Late Registrations

Late registration is possible up to 60 minutes before the start of the race. A late registration fee of CHF 10.00 will be charged compared to the online registration.

Article 4 // Formats

All participants start in medium-sized groups. Groups are allocated on the basis of the average speed indicated. Time is only measured on the five defined climbs: Schellenberg, Triesenberg, Sankt Luzisteig, Pfäfers and Triesenberg. On the shorter loop, the time will be measured on the Sankt Luzisteig, Pfäfers and Triesenberg climbs. Between the climbs the race will be neutralised. The total of the times from the climbs gives the ranking.

Artikel 5 // Teamwertung

Each team member completes the 90 kilometers of the big loop as a single. At the end, the times of the three fastest team members are cumulated and give the result of the team ranking. At least three persons must be registered with the same team name. In order to be counted as a team, the identical team name must be given at the registration. Already registered participants can change or add their team name by sending a message to info@chasingcancellara.com.

Article 6 // Equipment Bicycle

Aero handlebars are forbidden. Any motorized support at the bicycle or E-Bikes are strictly forbidden. If there is found a fraud, the participant will instantly be stopped and disqualified.

Article 7 // Award Ceremony & Finisher Party

After the race, the ceremony for the winners is held. At the same time, the finisher meal for all participants takes place.

Article 8 // Refund Participant Fee

The registration is to be made on the internet. Registrations over phone or via mail are not accepted.

The organizer has the right to disqualify participants without refunding if they registered with wrong personal information, if they violate any rules or if there is reasonable suspicions with regards to the using banned substances.

The starting spot can be rewritten via info@chasingcancellara.com for a fee of 10 CHF. With the registration number the start place can be rewritten with a registration confirmation for a fee of 20 CHF.

A cancellation insurance of the paid entry fee can be completed upon request with the registration. In the event of illness or accident, the insured person will be credited the paid entry fee via the company Sette Sports (against presentation of a medical certificate).

If the race cannot be carried out or only partially carried out due to force majeure, extraordinary risks or official order, there is no entitlement to a refund of the entry fee.

Article 9 // Daily schedule at race day

The times vary from place to place and will be published on the website www.chasingcancellara.com on each event site prior to the events.

Article 10 // Registration and Time Keeping

The registration and time keeping will be conducted by Race Result and all information can be found on the platform of Race Result.
